

Trading Places

SONJA De Bruyn Sebotsa, partner at Identity Partners, and Arnold van Wyk, executive at RMB Corvest, have been appointed to the board of Southern African Venture Capital and Private Equity Association.

De Bruyn Sebotsa is a co-founder of Identity Capital Partners, a private equity firm. She is a former vice-president at Deutsche Bank and worked in the Johannesburg, London and Tokyo offices. As an executive director at WDB Investment Holdings, she led acquisitions in companies such as Bidvest, FirstRand and Discovery.

Van Wyk joined RMB Corvest in 2013. He completed his articles at Deloitte and spent time in the corporate finance division. Van Wyk joined the FirstRand group in 2003, as corporate banker at FNB, and later as investment banker at RMB.

Sonja De Bruyn Sebotsa

Arnold van Wyk